P.C.

l. Heard counsel for the parties.

2. We are not inclined to interfere with the proceedings pending before the Estate Officer at this stage. We are informed that hearing is complete and order of the Estate Officer is awaited. If the order of the Estate Officer be adverse to the petitioners, they are free to prefer appeal against such order before the Principal Judge, City Civil Court, Bombay. We direct that the order of the Estate Officer will not be implemented for a period of four weeks from the date of its communication to the petitioners.

3. Petition is dismissed.

4. All contentions on merit are left open to the parties.
